LOCAL MATTERS.

On rise tomorrow at 5:24 a. m. and sets at 6:37 p. m. High water at 1:02 a. m. and 1:35 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Friday; fresh north-easterly winds.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. F. J. Brooke, a profound thinker and learned theologian has been conducting services in the Presbyterian church of this place for some time and drawing large congregations. He is one of the most agreeable speakers we ever heard and one of the very few, having heard one, who would care to hear again.—[Warrenton Virginian.]

The decision of Col. Theodore Ficklin not to be a candidate for re-election to the Common Council is greatly regretted by his many friends. Having been at every election the last four years, he has been a constant presence in the municipal arena. The determination of Mr. W. E. Latham not to become a candidate again is also regretted by his many friends.

Among those who attended a reception given by Miss Lenora Jackson, of Richmond, on Tuesday, was Miss Ruth Bryant, of this city.

Mr. Richard S. Windsor, jr., has gone to Weir City, Kan., where he has secured a position with a coal and coke company. His many friends here wish him abundant success.

Major E. H. Janney, of Haymarket, was in the city today.

Mr. George Ide is sick at his home on Upper Price street.

Miss Clara Evelyn, daughter of Mr. Lizzie Chewning, No. 322 south Washington street, and Mr. Charles Phillips Maboot, of Lynchburg, will be married at the First Baptist Church, this city, on Monday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Southall, who was in the city yesterday, visited several of the new county school houses with Superintendent of County Schools J. E. Clements and Col. F. L. Smith, president of the City School Board.

Messrs. Wm. Wools, E. F. Thompson and J. F. Rodgers, whose names were presented to the democratic committee last night for the Common Council, have declined to become candidates.

ECHRE PARTY.—The Knights of Columbus gave a progressive echre last night and had a large attendance. After the echre, Prof. L. E. Gannon, of Washington, who conducted the solemn vespers service, on February 17, in this city, for the Knights of Columbus, was presented with a handsome K. of C. charm as an appreciation for his valuable services on that occasion.

Ladies prizes were awarded as follows: first prize, silver baking dish, donated by Castberg Jewellery Co., Washington, to Mrs. Jas. A. Dwyer; second prize, bisque figures donated by Tackett & Marshall, to Miss Keegan; third prize, handsome thermometer, donated by E. Voigt, Washington, to Miss Anna M. Gorman; fourth prize, jewel case, donated by C. M. Lennon, to Mrs. Chas. Baggett; fifth prize, silver collyer dish, donated by Mr. Chas. T. Hellmuth, to Miss Mae Carver; sixth prize, two years subscription to "The Home Journal," donated by Dr. Gorman, to Miss Miller, of Washington; seventh prize, box perfume, donated by Mr. W. H. P. Kelly, to Miss Breen. Gentlemen's prizes: first prize, pair of patent leather shoes, donated by Mr. Geo. L. Simpson, to Mr. T. McGowan; second prize, handsome picture in gold frame, donated by Saks & Co., Washington, to Mr. Stephen Woolley; third prize, handsome cake made especially for the occasion and donated by J. Fred Birrell, to Mr. James Bennett; fourth prize, gold picture frame, donated by S. S. Hopkins, to Mr. Chas. Hellmuth; fifth prize, silver match safe, donated by Mr. Robt. Wenzel, to Mr. John A. Lannon; sixth prize, box of cigars, donated by Hamilton & Co., to Mr. Michael Downey.

WEDDINGS.—Charles Sherwood, son of Policeman Joshua Sherwood, and Miss Ida Humphries, of this city, were quietly married at 8:30 o'clock last night at the parsonage of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. J. A. Jeffers. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present.

After the ceremony the couple left for a trip to New Jersey and Delaware. On their return they will reside here. The groom is a clerk in the store of Mr. R. E. Knight.

Miss Belle Mulley and Mr. George Williams were married at 7:30 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride's family, 1823 Duke street. The groom was a non-commissioned officer in the United States army for thirty years, and the bride is a popular young lady of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Berryman Green, of Christ Church.

CHARTER.—Judge Norton has granted a charter to the Old Dominion Glass Company, the objects of which are to manufacture glass in all its forms and to sell and dispose of the same. The capital stock is to be $25,000, and the officers are H. K. Price, president; Lorenzo Wolford, vice president; G. D. Hopkins, secretary and treasurer. These with M. L. Price, Jr., A. R. Hopkins and H. E. Dowdham constitute the board of directors.

"SHARPS AND FLATS," the popular local amateur theatrical association of this city, which for some months has been holding rehearsals of the opera "The Bohemian Girl," has discontinued its rehearsals for the present, and will not produce the opera until the fall of the year. This decision was reached after it was ascertained that a sufficiently large chorus could not be secured at this time.

CIVIL SERVICE.—The United States civil service commission yesterday held an examination in the custom house here. There were twenty-nine applicants. Fourteen were for the railway mail service, thirteen for skilled labor and two for electric elevator conductors. Nearly all the applicants were from Washington, where the applications were filed.
